SUMMARY:

Areas for further growth:

Learn more about assessment

Remember to speak with brevity.

Express your fun side during lessons. Teaching can be a hard and lonely job so make it fun for you. You'll last longer in this profession and be more successful with your students and happier in your personal life.

Continue to learn about the curriculum you are teaching.

Continue to look for ways to differentiate lessons to meet all learning needs.

Start to gather up a repertoire of attention getting tricks and short time fillers (e.g. songs, games and activities) that can be utilized when you need something for 5 minutes here or there.

Overall comments (Strongest aspects of student's performance):

Excellent candidate for teaching. Has all the inborn qualities of a great teacher – patience, professionalism, warm and caring, a passion for teaching. All other aspects of the profession will continue to develop if you continue to work hard, ask questions and be reflective. I was impressed with your strength of character when a lesson didn't go well. A teacher needs to be resilient. Not every lesson will be stellar. You reflected on the lesson and made steps to correct it next time. Fantastic practicum. It's been an absolute pleasure and I wish you all the best.

Recommendation: Pass Fail Incomplete

*If an Incomplete grade is recommended, please attach a signed document providing reasons and recommendations for additional practicum experience.
